RESPONSE TO OFFICE COMMUNICATION

Sir:

Applicants have received an Office Communication dated August 28, 2006, which contends that the Amendment filed on June 13, 2006 does not comply with 37
C.F.R. § 1.121, and which requires that a clean copy of the specification be submitted.
This requirement is respectfully traversed.

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being transmitted via facsimile to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office at (571) 273-8300, on:

September 27, 2006
(Date of Transmission)

In particular, 37 C.F.R. § 1.121(b)(1)(ii) recites that amendments to the specification, including amendment to a section heading or the title of the invention which are considered for amendment purposes to be an amendment of a paragraph, must be made by submitting:

"The full text of any replacement paragraph with markings to show all the changes relative to the previous version of the paragraph. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strikethrough cannot be easily perceived."

In this regard, the June 13, 2006 Amendment is seen to provide proper replacement paragraphs for (i) the upper-right hand corner of page 1 (i.e., deleting "CFO 12088 US" and adding --08/863,047--), (ii) the paragraph beginning on page 21, line 3, and (iii) the paragraph beginning on page 32, line 3.

Furthermore, the June 13, 2006 Amendment is seen to unambiguously identify the location to add one or more paragraphs (i.e., adding --08/863,047-- to the upper-right hand corner of each of pages 2 to 39). See 37 C.F.R. § 1.121(b)(1)(iii).

Accordingly, submission of a clean copy (unmarked-up copy) of the specification, as required by the August 28, 2006 Office Communication, is not seen to be necessary. Accordingly, withdrawal of this requirement is respectfully requested.

No other matters being raised, it is believed that the entire application is fully in condition for allowance, and such action is courteously solicited.
